

TOP 40 UNDER 40
GROWTH INVESTORS

GrowthCap has compiled its list of the Top 40 Under 40 Growth Investors which highlights exceptional private capital investors in the growth segment. These impressive professionals have experiences that span the gamut, from being ex-entrepreneurs, to political advisors, to marines, to investment bankers, or even having worked in private equity since leaving college, but despite their vastly different pasts they are all currently in the business of helping emerging companies continue to grow and succeed.

3 ALISON KILLILEA

Company: W Capital
Title: Managing Director

Alison Killilea is a Managing Director with W Capital and specializes in the direct secondary asset class in growth stage private equity and provides flexible liquidity solutions. She joined the firm in 2007. Her investment coverage includes companies such as CollegeNet, Fios, and Green Dot, and she holds board or observer seats on a variety of portfolio companies such as American Traffic Solutions and Prodigy Health Group (acquired by Aetna). Previously, Killilea worked at Robertson Stephens and Piper Jaffray. She received an MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and a BA from Middlebury College.